WHAT SHOULD BE COMMUNICATED?

FACTS, PLANS, POLICIES, EXPLANATIONS,

DO ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS?

IS THE FORM AS IMPORTANT AS THE SUBSTANCE?

DOES THE FACT OF A DIALOGUE JUSTIFY ITSELF?

WE MUST WANT TO COMMUNICATE - WHICH

MEANS LISTENING AS WELL

Communication laterally impeded - need-to-know, compartmentation.

Products of the Agency not available to most employees - Estimates; Intelligence Bulletins - etc.

In some kind of in-house Bulletin - Estimate possible semi; bi; or monthly e.g.

In. Officer training - need for old hands to keep professionally current academically - to be able to speak modern language.

Plans & Programs - Objectives goals of the Office - Directorate not known to most employees - Most don't know where they fit in the overall scheme of things this FY - or during the 5-yr. planning period.

Young people want to participate - make their presence be felt and make a contribution - not just sit and listen. They need problems to solve and the time to solve them.

Many of the problems - gripes - they identify have been talked with for years by present managers - Youth needs to know that present problems exist not because managers have done - or are willing to do nothing; but present managers have done best they can, or best they know how to do; we don't need youth to identify problems - we need them to provide solutions starting where present managers leave off - re-inventing the wheel and what's been avoided

Perhaps management could list some of the long term nagging problems, describe briefly their history, and solicit new ideas - e.g. Fitness Reports; career service;
cafeteria management; parking; NDC;
lack of headroom; promotion;

Identifying problems is relatively easy - doing something about them is an entirely different matter.
